New School . .

We, the class of 1963, would like to dedicate our yearbook to the promotion of School Spirit. This is our first year in the new high school, and it is an ideal time to revive our sometimes apathetic school spirit, because good school spirit is one of the most essential factors of a good school.

What is school spirit? It is difficult to explain because its qualities are abstract. Enthusiasm, loyalty, participation, and honesty are all included in school spirit. This intangible quality should exist in every person, as well as in every phase of school life.

DEDICATION:

We the Seniors would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Crowley, our advisor. We do not know what we would have done without him. Mr. Crowley was always there when we needed him for advice or help. He unselfishly gave his time and energy to all the projects we undertook. We can never thank him enough for what he did for our class.

J. J. CROWLEY

In Memoriam

Miss Mary L. Doherty

As a white candle
In a holy place,
So is the beauty
Of an ageless face.

As the spent radiance
Of the winter sun,
So is a woman
With her travail done.

Her brood gone from her,
And her thought as still
As the waters
Under a ruined mill.

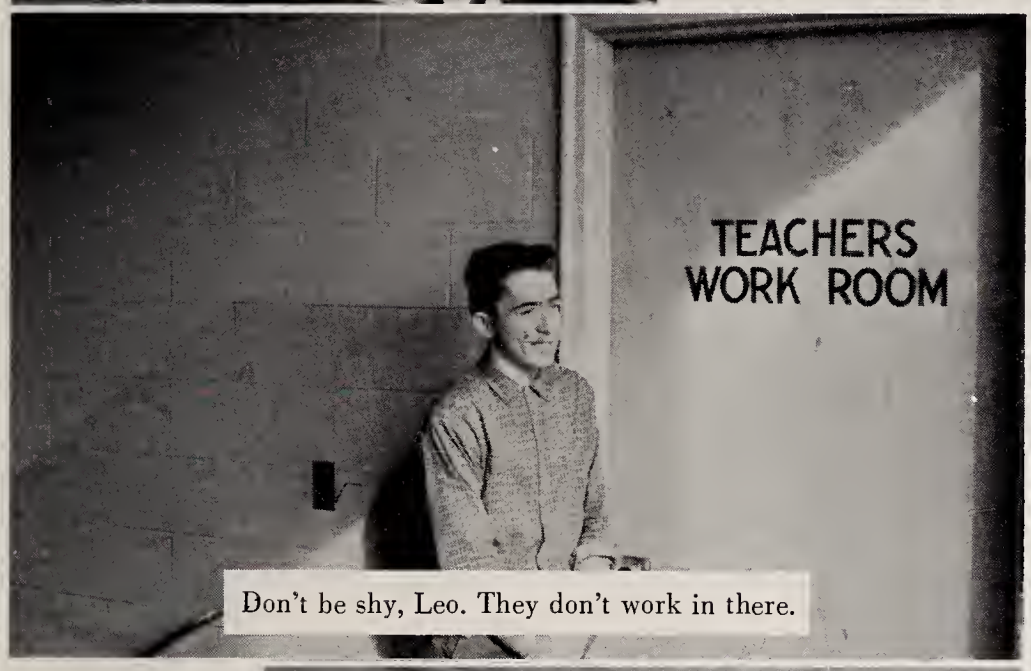
Faculty

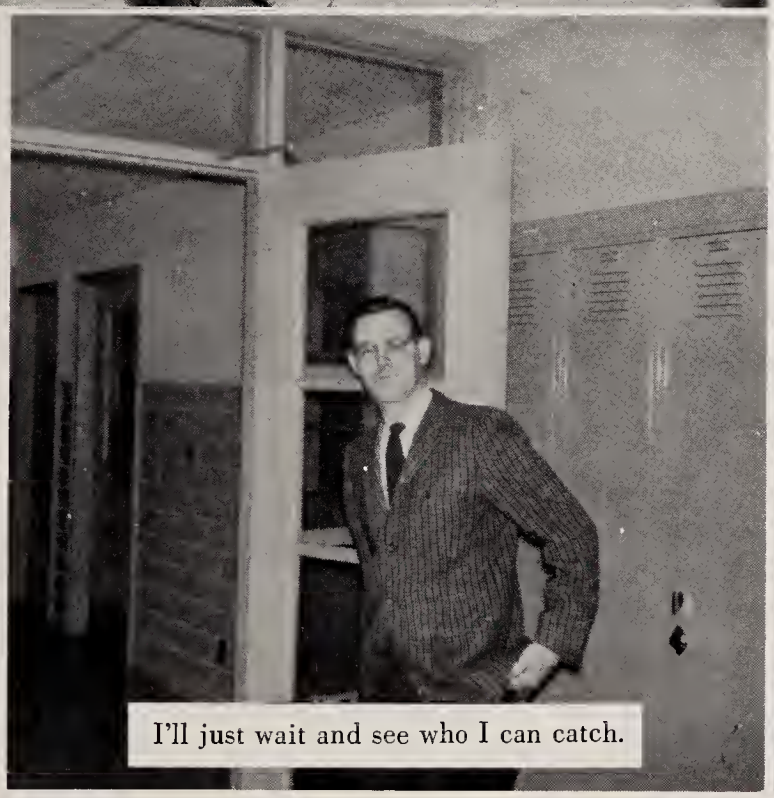
We of the Senior Class realize that a school is only as good as its teachers—that good school spirit cannot be attained without the aid and co-operation of an interested faculty. Therefore, we would like to express our thanks and appreciation to our faculty, who have freely given their time and advice whenever we have needed it.

Autographs, all day, autographs.

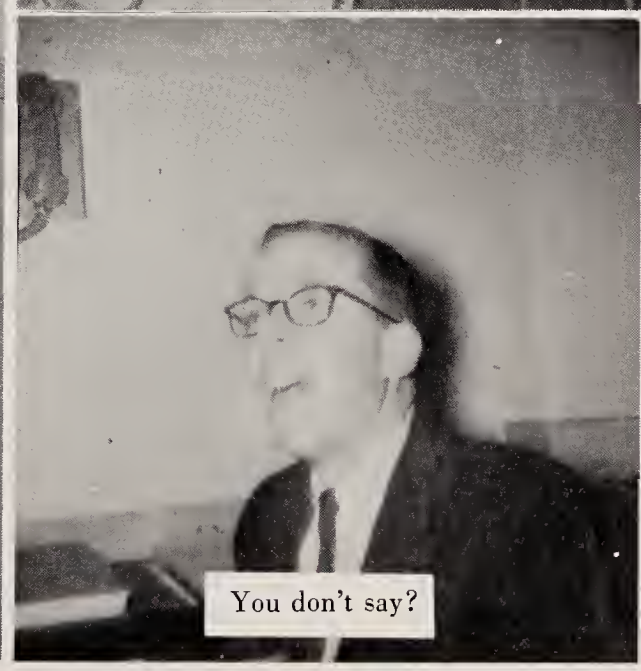


Don't be shy, Leo. They don't work in there.

Nice job with the initials.



I'll just wait and see who I can catch.



You don't say?

Continue to make the most of your good opportunities. Your life will be happy and successful, your contributions to humanity worthwhile.

Underclassmen

Run for it!! Underclassmen in the lab!

No school can have any kind of spirit without an active student body to project it. In the following pages we present the underclassmen — those Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen who constitute the remainder of the student body of F.H.S., and who have added much to our high school days.

To the Junior Class, our worthy successor, we Seniors leave all the fun and frustrations of the senior year. Looking at the bright side, you juniors have before you seemingly endless parties, that institution for seeking revenge known as Initiation Day, that proud feeling known as "Senior Superiority," and of course, GRADUATION.

To be a member of the National Senior Honor Society, one must not only attain a high level of academic accomplishment, but one must also possess the qualities of leadership, service, and citizenship.

Each year the members of the Honor Society awards a scholarship to a deserving senior. The juniors and seniors are to be commended for this, as well as for their efforts in many fund-raising drives.

The highlight of the various Senior Honor Society activities during the past several years was a trip to Washington, D. C., in May of last year. The Honor Society worked ferociously for a year selling light bulbs and brooms, sponsoring food sales, running concessions at basketball games, and performing various other endeavors in order to raise the money for the trip.

The Junior Honor Society is the branch of the National Honor Society which is composed of those freshmen and sophomores achieving academic success.

This year, the Junior Honor Society took part in the March of Dimes drive. To raise money they ran a concession at football games and sold Franklin High School banners. They plan to use this money for a trip to Boston. This organization has always been an asset to our school.

The Student Council is the organization through which our school provides for better communication between its students and its faculty.

This year the members of the Student Council were put in charge of the newly initiated marshal system. They have held a pep rally, conducted morning exercises, remembered the elderly with presents at Christmas and sponsored a bus to a basketball game.

A suggestion box was installed for students' use and the Student Council, and Mr. Beane have worked together towards putting many of the suggestions into effect.

The Student Council is to be congratulated for its interest in its school and community.

The Commercial Club was formed just this year. The Club's objective is to give its members practice for working in business.

This year, the girls sold candy at football and basketball games to raise money.

It's not all work, though, various field trips have been made. At the end of the year, the members of the Commercial Club plan to donate something to our school.

COACH'S NOTE

The nucleus of any football is always the senior members of the squad due to their maturity and experience. The fact that the Panthers had their first winning season since 1956 provides the answer that the seven senior members of the team provided the necessary performance and leadership required for a successful season.

It is my hope that the senior boys have learned that hard work on the practice field plus desire for perfection results in success and I hope this principle will be adopted by them in future endeavors in life.

COACH'S NOTE:

The basketball season for this year had many interesting aspects. The team with three regulars returning did not really find its true form until after the mid-year break. At this writing the team has one remaining game to be played in the Hockamock League which will determine third place within the league. As for next year's prospects, the basketball team will again have three returning players.

COMMENT:

The track team is fairly new to F.H.S. Its members are noted for their spirit and dogged determination. Jim Maness, their captain, set a school high-jump mark last year at 5'8". A fine squad of boys under the leadership of Coach Warren Griffin.

MEMBERS:

COMMENT:

Mr. Weeks and the golf team meet other schools in regular competition. They are for the school and they play well. Mr. Weeks inserts corny jokes and rattles the opposing players. Then the team steps up to the tee and finishes the task. Seriously, the golf team is a credit to our school and deserves our full support.
